Regulation Finding Worksheet

Complete the worksheet before you begin researching.

Starting information: Fill in unknown information as you find it.

Regulation citation:

Regulation name:

Regulation topic/area of law:

Initial Questions

Is it state or federal?

What agency might administer this regulation?

Am I sure that I am looking for a regulation? Why?
Tracking Information: From the keywords and other information you have, plot your strategy for finding the regulation. What will be your first step and why? Complete this section of the worksheet before you actually begin the research, then record how it worked. (Do not worry if you do not take the exact number of steps listed in the worksheet—feel free to use the back of the worksheet to list more steps. If you can complete the task in fewer steps, celebrate your improved research skills!)
