

CHAPTER 7: Internet Resources Links

<http://www.babson.edu>

Search “Frontiers of Entrepreneurship Research” on this site to find the Frontiers of Entrepreneurship Research article database, searchable by year or topic.

<http://www.businessknowhow.com>

Business Know-How is an award-winning small business destination site for home offices and small businesses and is known for providing practical information about starting, growing and managing small and home-based businesses.

<http://www.secretsofsuccess.com>

Secrets of Success started out as a television show featuring biographies of successful and influential entrepreneurs. This Web site was created as a supplement to the television shows, offering more information about true success as defined in the biographies.

<http://www.score.org>

SCORE is a nonprofit organization formed in 1964 to help small businesses flourish. SCORE’s volunteers share their wisdom and lessons learned in business.

<http://www.woopidoo.com>

Woopidoo! is a motivational business portal and newsletter. There are several channels on the site focusing on informing and inspiring through business articles, quotes, interviews, biographies, news, reviews, and much more.